Cheers! Erothanatos, Volume 3 Issue 3. A special issue of poetry.

The benefit of poetry is its surpassing quality of going beyond the horizon—the narrowness of region and country does not work here. So, we received so many poems from so many regions and countries. Obviously, it was very tough work for Inam Hussain Mullick to choose the ‘best’ ones—the best for our journal and best of our choice. However, we cannot say the poems we could not select for this issue are not good ones, but simply they could get way to Erothanatos.

Thanks to all who contributed to our journal.
